

Communion Prayer
Submitted by Wes Sullivan
Elder FCC-Duncan, OK

Father in Heaven

Thank You for this day

We thank You Father for what this table represents.

For we know as a people that belongs to You that the grave will have no sting for us.

For we proclaim Your Son's righteousness. Declaring to all generations even to a people yet unborn. He has done it.

And now it is right and proper that we ask and pray that You bless and consecrate this bread and this fruit of the vine.

In Christ's Name, Amen.

Father in Heaven

Thank You for this day

We, as one body of believers, thank You Father for the privilege of participating in Your Son's Table.

We are grateful for what this Table represents, Your salvation and love for us as revealed by your Son, Jesus of Nazareth.

And just as He did so long ago on the night he was betrayed, we give thanks for and ask that You consecrate, this bread and this fruit of the vine.

In Christ's Name, Amen.

